and other tidbits

I have had assistance from many others, most notably Ed Chaplin and Michael Sparke, my British friends who continue to provide me with pages and pages of helpful information. I thank them and all of the others.

This document will continue to evolve. I still have almost two dozen more shows to add. There are soloists and arrangers as of yet unidentified. And I am certain there are mistakes, both in data entry and identification. As I discover these errors I will update this information. Check the date on the top of the document pages for the latest version.

PLEASE send corrections and additions to me at tvosbein@mac.com
